

Jelly Tots at home 7 Moses and the 10 Commandments

You've probably heard of the 10 Commandments,
you might even know one or two,
but do you know how they came about?

Story for younger children - see photos of 'Ten Commandments'

Story for older children - see photos of 'Moses the law-giver'

It is more than just some rules to follow, God was making a covenant with His people.

People might think these laws are old and relevant - In Matthew 5 we read that Jesus came to bring a new understanding and fulfilment to these laws.

Ten Commandments

Exodus 19-20

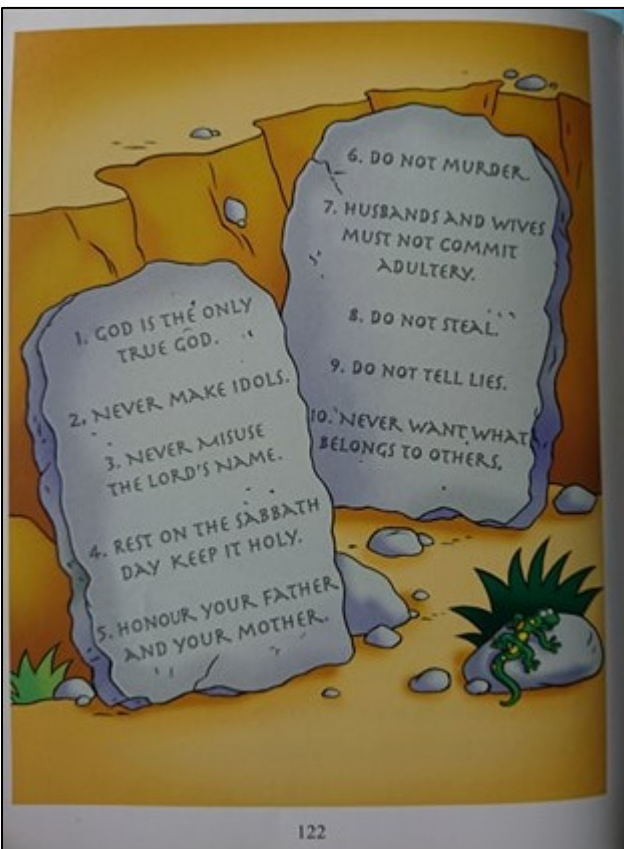

God led the Israelites to a mountain.
Thunder roared and lightning flashed.
The people heard a loud trumpet blast.

120

Then God called Moses to the top of the mountain and said, "I am the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt." God wrote the Ten Commandments on two stone tablets for all his people to obey.

121

122

The Israelites needed a place to worship. God showed them exactly how to build a special tent. It was called a tabernacle. God placed a cloud over the tent. Whenever the cloud moved, the Israelites packed up and followed it.

123

Moses the law-giver

Moses led the people to the mountain of Sinai, where God had first spoken to him. Here, God gave Moses two stone slabs on which were the laws by which his chosen people were to live their lives.

On the first stone were the laws concerning their duty to God. They must not worship other gods. They must not worship idols of wood or stone. They must keep God's name holy. They must keep God's day – the Sabbath – holy. And they must honour their parents.

The second tablet contained the laws concerning their duty to each other. They must not kill. They must not be unfaithful to their wife or husband. They must not steal anything. They must not tell lies. They must not be envious of another person.

These were the Ten Commandments which God gave to his chosen people through Moses. On Sinai, God made a solemn agreement – a covenant – with his people: they were to promise to live by these commandments, and God in turn would promise to be their God, and they his chosen people for all time.
