

Atlantic Story Told

(Kelvin Grove)

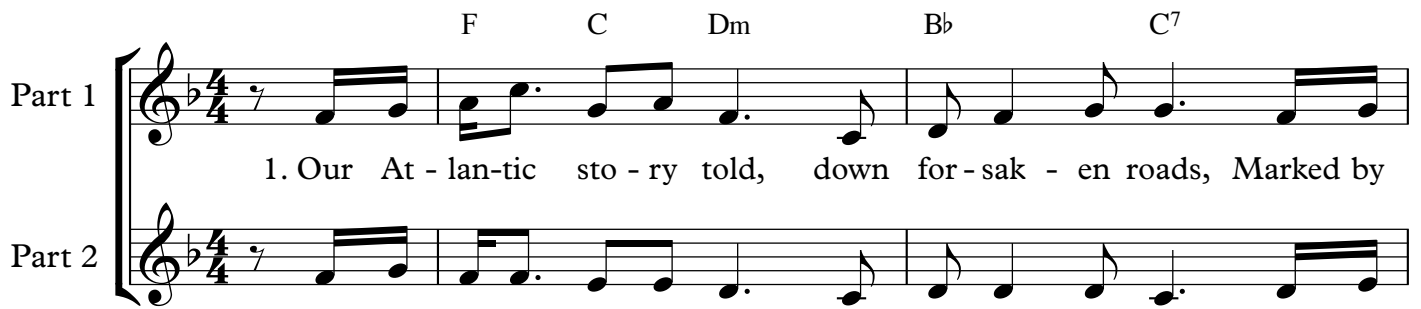

Matt Warnes

Part 1

Part 2

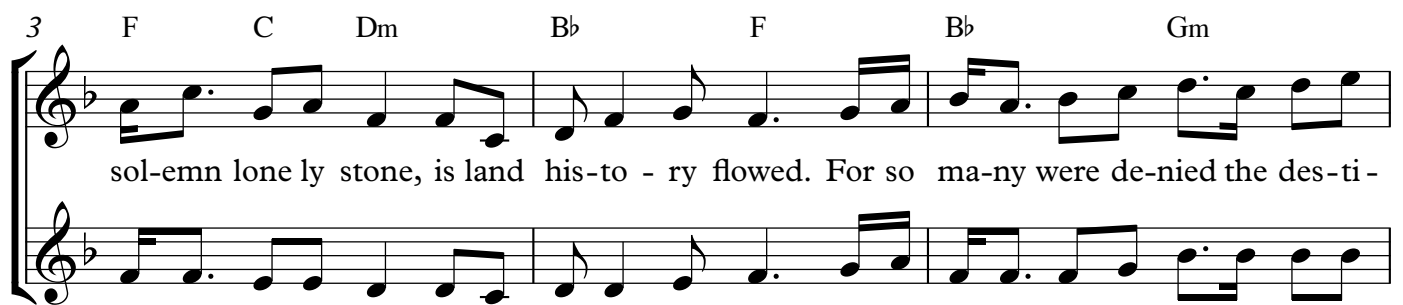

F C Dm Bb C⁷

1. Our At - lan-tic sto - ry told, down for - sak - en roads, Marked by

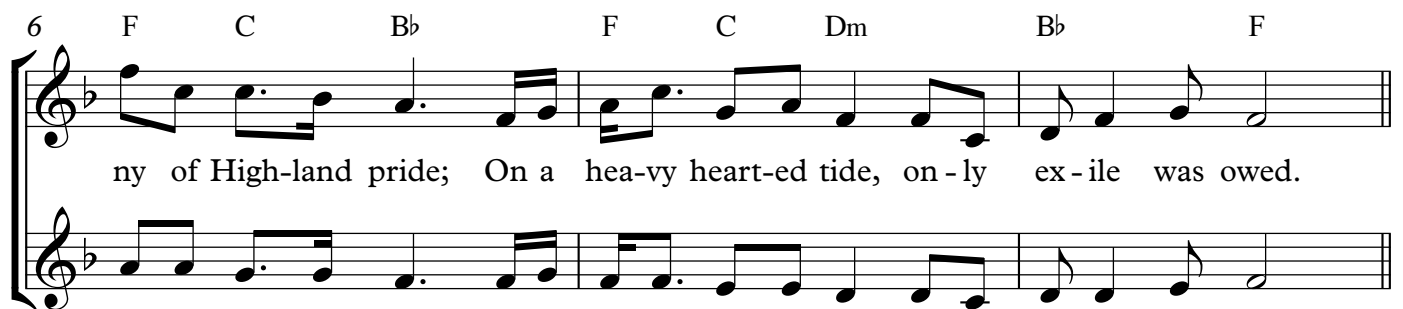

3 F C Dm Bb F Bb Gm

sol-umn lone ly stone, is land his-to - ry flow-ed. For so ma-ny were de-nied the des-tiny of High-land pride; On a hea-vy heart-ed tide, on - ly ex - ile was owed.

6 F C Bb F C Dm Bb F

9 F C Dm Bb C⁷

2. With the Har-ris kelp left cold, no hard-scraped liv-ing from the shore; When the

12 F C Dm Bb F Bb Gm

fin-est slate of Seil was torn from the earth no more. In their darkest time of need, and with

15 F C B \flat F C Dm B \flat F

hun-gry mouths to feed; On a hea-vy heart-ed tide, on-ly ex-ile was owed.

18 F C Dm B \flat C 7

3. When the cru-el - ty of war took its ter-ri - ble toll, the

21 F C Dm B \flat F

clear-an - ces took more, as the crofts were swal-lowed whole. To the

23 B \flat Gm F C B \flat

ships the des-perate flowed, their ir - on bel-lies took the load, On a

25 F C Dm B \flat B \flat m F

hea-vy heart-ed tide, on - ly ex - ile was owed.