

Harvest

John Charles McNeill (1874-1907)

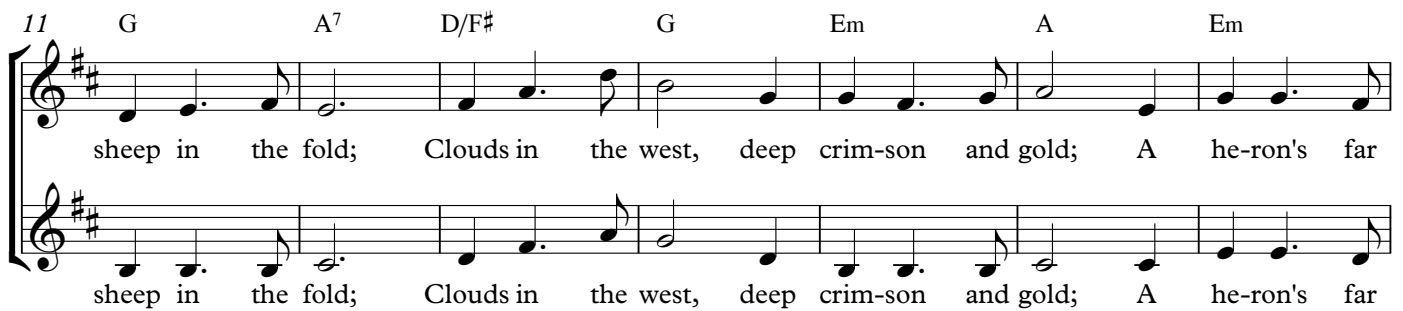

Jerry King

D      D/F#

Cows in the stall and Cows in the stall and

11      G      A<sup>7</sup>      D/F#      G      Em      A      Em

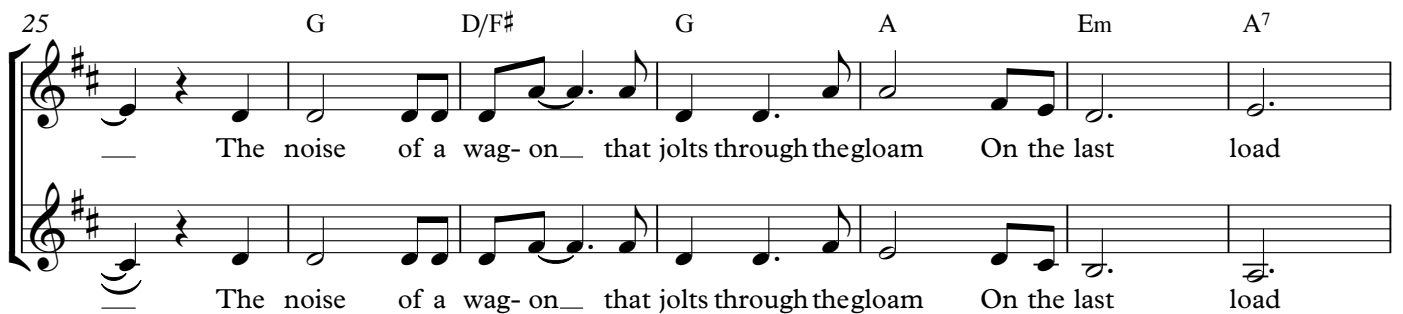

sheep in the fold; Clouds in the west, deep crim-son and gold; A he-ron's far sheep in the fold; Clouds in the west, deep crim-son and gold; A he-ron's far

18      A      D E F# G      B<sup>7</sup>      Em      Gm      A

flight to a roost_ some where; The twit-ter of Kill-dees keen in the air;
flight to a roost_ some where; The twit-ter of Kill-dees keen in the air;

25      G      D/F#      G      A      Em      A<sup>7</sup>

The noise of a wag-on_ that jolts through the gloam On the last load
The noise of a wag-on_ that jolts through the gloam On the last load

32      D      D      D/F#

home. There are lights in the win-dows; a home. There are lights in the win-dows; a

42 G A<sup>7</sup> D/F# G Em A Em

blue spire of smoke Climbs from thegrange grove of elm and oak. The smell of the blue spire of smoke Climbs from thegrange grove of elm and oak. The smell of the

49 A D E F# G B<sup>7</sup> Em Gm A

Earth, where the nightpours to her It's de - wy li - bat - ion, is sweet - er than myrrh, —
Earth, where the nightpours to her It's de - wy li - bat - ion, is sweet - er than myrrh, —

56 G D/F# G A Em A<sup>7</sup>

— And an in - cense to Toil — is the smell of the loam On the last load
— And an in - cense to Toil — is the smell of the loam On the last load

63 D G D/F# G

home And an in - cense to Toil — is the smell of the home And an in - cense to Toil — is the smell of the

68 A Em rall. A<sup>7</sup> D

loam On the last load home
loam On the last load home